Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) Training Program Opportunity

A program that provides disaster information, education, and training that no resident should be without!

For more information call 805-686-7435

What is CERT? CERT stands for Community Emergency Response Team. A CERT is a group of people that are organized to work as a group to respond to disasters that impact their homes, businesses, and neighborhoods.

The CERT program provides lectures, films, and hands-on training for participants over an eight (8) week period. Classes are held once a week in the evenings. The program is offered at $25.00 and is open to all Santa Ynez, Solvang and Bulletin residents age 18 and up.

PROGRAM CURRICULUM CONSISTS OF:

*Introduction to Disasters
Fire Suppression Techniques
Disaster Medical Care I
Disaster Medical Care II
Search and Rescue Techniques*

*CERT Organizations
Disaster Psychology
Introduction to Terrorism
Course Review and Disaster Simulation*

The CERT program is designed to be practical, interesting and fun. While the program is interactive, there are no special physical requirements to participate in the program.

CERT is sponsored by Orfalea's Aware and Prepare Program and the Cities of Solvang and Buellton. All classes are taught by emergency management, American Red Cross, Fire Safety Experts and Santa Barbara County Sheriff's instructors. The CERT program is an official Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) program. Certificates of Completion are issued to participants at the end of the program.
